Month	Flower	Color	Birthstone
January	Carnation	Orange & Yellow	Garnet

January: In the north of the northern hemisphere, January is a cold and gloomy month, But in the non-frozen areas, many flowers will bloom in the cool weather, and carnation is one of them. The flower associated with the month is Carnation and is said to symbolize love, fascination and distinction. Carnation, which is also commonly called Gillyflower, is found in a number of colors from pink to purple-red.

Thank You: To the Titonka Wesley 4H Group for the nice Supplies you brought in for the residents to use in activities. To the Titonka Girl Scouts for their gifts to the residents and for coming and singing. To the Woden Legion Auxiliary for the door decorations you made and candy. To the people who donated to the group Pay It Forward for the nice gifts and Supplies for activities. Thanks to Pay it Forward. We appreciate you all for all the nice things. We will be setting a date to take the residents pictures by a photographer. If you would like family pictures taken please let me know by either phone calls or emails [to—
